

Stephanie Lisi

Stephanie is a native of Baltimore, MD. She was exposed to the visual & theatrical arts where she cultivated her passion for movement and color .

Stephanie attended Baltimore School For The Performing Arts as a dancer and developed relationships with makeup artists and hairdressers while working in local theater. Here she found her love. Over the past 35 years she has attended the TIGI Academy in New York City multiple times, TIGI international in London, England as well as continued education with world renowned stylists.

Stephanie's work graced the cover of Washingtonian Magazine as well as additional print work with Baltimore Magazine. She spends quality time creating with her clients the look that fits their lifestyle. From color to cut and some helpful "How To's".

WORCESTER COUNTY